

AED Training

Thank you to the 15 folks who gave their time on Tuesday evening to attend Red Cross training in anticipation of our new AED. (They each paid for their own training so they gave their treasure too.)

We had a great turnout: 13 were certified in CPR/AED and 2 in CPR. Sue Bennett from Train to Save brought her CPR dummies and her training AEDs and provided an informative hands-on program.

Thanks to all!