783 Hard Road, Webster, New York 14580

August 11, 2024 Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mission Statement

St Paul's Parish Family exists for the purpose of witnessing and proclaiming the message of Jesus Christ, that message proclaimed in word, worship, service: love God, love your neighbor as yourself.

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"I am the bread of life.
Your ancestors ate the
manna in the desert,
but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it
and not die."
- Jn 6:48-50

Preserving Memories

Handwritten recipes are full of memories, especially the ones that have been passed down through the generations. They carry with them the flavors and aromas that have graced family gatherings and celebrations for years. They serve as tangible reminders of cherished moments and the people who made them unforgettable. Whether it's Grandma's Pot Roast or Mom's perogies, these recipes evoke memories of festive dinners, cozy evenings, and shared laughter around the table. A parishioner recently shared with the office one of these recipes from Rose Mary Straube and we wanted to share it with you.

In a large mixing bowl with an electric mixer, beat margarine, sugar, eggs, sour cream and vanilla for 2 minutes. Add flour, baking powder and salt; mix just until combined. Spread half the batter in the bottom of a greased 9x13 inch pan. Top with blueberry filling and remaining batter. In small bowl, combine sugar, brown sugar and cinnamon; sprinkle over top of coffee cake. Bake in preheated 350° oven for 50 to 60 minutes or until tested done. Cool. Makes 20 servings

Each swoop of a pen or the ink-stained fingerprints speaks of the person behind the recipe. It's not just about the ingredients; it's about the love, care, and personality infused into every stroke. I hope you take a moment to make this Blueberry Coffee cake and maybe think about sharing one of your favorite recipes with your children or grandchildren.

Restock the Backpack Shelves!

School will be back in session before you know it and Good Sam Outreach would like to help restock the Backpack donation shelves. Last year they distributed 3,293 bags of food over 36 weeks to our 7 Webster elementary schools. The items in the bags vary from 5 to 8 and they also provide snack boxes to the schools. Thanks to donations collected by churches like ours, local organizations and individuals the value of food distributed was over $12,000!

We will collect donations from:

August 24 through September 1.

Suggested donations include:

- * Peanut Butter & Jelly (plastic jars)
- * Canned fruit, soups, pastas (ravioli)
- * Spaghetti sauce and pasta
- * Granola bars
- * Small snack bags (Goldfish, pretzels, crackers, etc.)
- * Instant Oatmeal & small cereal boxes
- * Mac & Cheese

Thanks in advance for any help you are able to give!!!

Everyday Stewardship

What else is there to give when one has already given away their body and their life? What more can one say or do to demonstrate love for another when all they have has been given to another? This total giving of self to loved ones cannot be trumped by flowery words or material gifts that are fleeting. This is the ultimate in love. This is the love Jesus had for us on the way to his passion, at the institution of the Holy Eucharist. This is the love he has for us daily in the celebration of the Mass on altars in every church, in every city, in every nation on earth. No one can give more. No one can ask for more. This is the true heart of Christian stewardship.

If you take the time to gaze upon your God in the simplest of forms and begin to reflect on what has actually taken place with bread and wine becoming the presence of the Divine, then you can begin to understand true humility, sacrifice, and love. And when you have the privilege to take that Real Presence into your body at the meal where you are an honored guest, you become one with the One who is the embodiment of stewardship. Then, you must ask the question of yourself, "How can I even begin to reflect the love that I have encountered at this feast?" The answer is you can begin with the simple actions of the day: where will you go, whom will you meet, and in what work will you partake? Jesus Christ has shown that the greatest gift ever given can be disguised in this world in a piece of bread. By joining your body to his, he can now transform human hearts, not by grand acts, but by everyday acts, by everyday people practicing Everyday Stewardship.

From the John Walsh Library

Saint of the week

Servant of God Darwin Ramos, a poor Filipino boy, died from muscular dystrophy at the age of 17. Never brought low by the disease, he spoke of his illness as his "mission for Jesus." Many were blessed by his smile and compassionate friendship. He was known as the Master of Joy.

Prayer for Memory

Dear Lord,
Don't let me forget the ways You've fought for me throughout history. You have been in my life in endless ways and words. May these memories comfort and encourage me now and always. Amen.

McColman, Carl Befriending Silence (Discovering the Gifts of Cistercian Spirituality)

The world often seems full of jarring and unrelenting noise and hyperactivity. From traffic noises to lawnmowers to loud tv commercials, we long to escape to a world of quiet. But not too quiet. (Remember the isolation of the COVID-19 pandemic.) And so the monastic life can seem harsh. By giving themselves to simplicity and continual prayer, monks and nuns embody a way of life that places love before profits, people before things, and God before self. Most of these elements of monastic spirituality are adaptable to the lives of people who "live in the world." We can all learn to be more mindful and to nurture that hunger for God that lies within us. And to "listen" to the silence so that we can hear God. (Call No. 248.4-MCC)

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

Jesus tells us that he is the living bread that came down from heaven. His actions, his example, his teachings — they are not just words on a page, stories from a moth-eaten history book. They are life. They are food for our journey, and they are forever.
